Introducing the New Province Leader

Sr. Mary Anne Foley, CND, who served as Associate Province Leader the last four years, has just been elected Leader of Blessed Sacrament Province. Sr. Mary Anne and the province leadership team were chosen this past June at the Province Chapter, which takes place every four years.

"There's a lot of energy and hope among us," Sr. Mary Anne says. "I hope we'll be able to explore new ways of doing old things."

The boldest CND explorer was, of course, St. Marguerite Bourgeoys. Sr. Mary Anne wrote her Ph.D. dissertation on Marguerite, whom she still thinks of as a "wise friend." She admires Marguerite's "willingness to do something very new, for energy

and hope
among us."*

which there was no precedent. She had to make it up as she went along."

Sr. Mary Anne received her B.A. from Sacred Heart University, her M.T.S. from Weston School of Theology, and her Ph.D. in religious studies from Yale University. She taught high school at Waterbury Catholic High and at Holy Cross High School in Waterbury, CT. For five years she taught English in the CND province in Japan.

Before joining the province administrative team, Sr. Mary Anne was an associate professor of theology at the University of Scranton in Scranton, PA. She says, "I have always been an educator and a student."

Rotating Out of Province Leadership

Sr. Mary Anne Powers, CND

"I'm very grateful for having served the last four years with an extraordinary leadership team."

Sr. Mary Anne Powers has served in CND leadership for the past 25 years. She ended her term as Province Leader on Sept. 18, 2021. "None of us leads alone," Sr. Mary Anne says. "From an 'I' to a 'we' style of leadership – that's how we accomplish the things we have to do. I'm humbled by the trust and confidence of the Sisters and very grateful for having served the last four years with an extraordinary leadership team."

Sr. Mary Anne has formed partnerships in her career not only within the congregation but also with CND supporters. In 1998 she founded the Mission Advancement Office. She came to know many CND donors and recognized that "the CND mission is not ours alone, but is shared with our colleagues and benefactors. Schools, parishes, social service agencies, anywhere there's a CND Sister, we bring the congregation and those who support us in our work."

Now that she has stepped aside, Sr. Mary Anne will take a sabbatical to regroup. She will be attentive, she says, "to where God is calling me as I move forward. There are so many needs. I will serve where there is a call for me – from the congregation and from God."

Your support for Sisters working in our province administration is critical.
They do not receive outside salaries. Many, many thanks for your generosity!

A CND Becomes Vicar for Religious in NYC

Sr. Joan Curtin, CND became Vicar for Religious for the Archdiocese of New York on Sept. 1, 2021. She had served as Director of the archdiocesan Catechetical Office for 36 years and Director of Catechist Formation for two years before that.

As vicar, Sr. Joan will be the link to the religious Sisters and Brothers in the archdiocese. There are over 100 religious communities in the archdiocese, and the number is growing. Several new, mainly Hispanic, communities have launched. "They are the future," Sr. Joan says. "We need to walk with them, find out what their needs are and how can assist them. God continues to call people to religious life."

Celebrating Sisters' achievements in the archdiocese will be a focus of her work. "In many ways, Sisters feel invisible. They are aging but their communities are still vibrant, and what we can do is help them feel less invisible."

For inspiration Sr. Joan relies on the example of St. Marguerite Bourgeoys. "By her faith, courage and wisdom, St. Marguerite is a model for all Sisters. She certainly is mine as I begin this new ministry with and for religious of all congregations in the Archdiocese of New York."

"We serve in Jesus's name," she adds. "It's important to remember that. St. Marguerite Bourgeoys served in Jesus's name."

Sr. Joan Curtin, CND

Your generosity helps sustain all our Sisters, whether retired or in active ministry. Thank you!

A Visitation Companion Thanks the CNDs

- by Deborah McManush

Being a Visitation Companion is my way of saying "thank you" to the Congregation of Notre Dame Sisters. My four sisters and I were fortunate to attend Villa Maria Academy grammar school in the Bronx. In those days all the classes were taught by CND's.

I went on to attend high school at the Villa. We were taught not just academics but also faith, empathy, compassion, and inclusiveness. The CND's set high expectations for the girls, encouraging us to follow our dreams.

After college, I came full circle and began teaching at the Villa. I enjoyed the support and friendship of the CND's as colleagues. I grew in confidence and honed my skills with the help and loving support of the Sisters.

Villa Maria and the CND's are my extended family. My three children went to the Villa where they experienced the nurturing education of a CND school. I now volunteer on the alumni committee.

I am happy to be a Visitation Companion to support the CND Sisters as they continue their mission of loving and caring service to others.

Associates Send Love to Immigrant Children at the Border

A two-time volunteer at the border in El Paso, TX, Judy Laffey is an Associate in Providence, RI. She recently rallied Rhode Island Associates and parishioners from a largely Hispanic parish to help immigrant children arriving unaccompanied in El Paso. On Sept. 10, the group sent 22 boxes of coloring books, crayons, stuffed animals - and love - to the children coming to the U.S. empty-handed.

Associate Judy Laffey with Frances Guevara, Youth Ministry leader at St. Edward Parish, Providence, RI and three helpers.

In the U.S., over 130 women and men are CND Associates. Thank you for your generous support of this program!
